About This Collection

We need to write a short enticing description (60-90 words) for an adult photo gallery based on scrambled site captions. The gallery title is: "入り浸りjkにアソコ使わせてもらう話". , Japanese. Use Japanese language.

We need to reuse at least 20% of the key words from the captions (names, nicknames, distinctive terms), translating the rest as needed. Actually black? best", "黒田"? So we need to include at least 2 of those exact terms. best", "黒田". 8, so at least 2 key words must be reused. We need to reuse at least 20% of key words. That's 9. There's a mention "黒田". We can include more.

We must not use disallowed words: delve, tapestry, vibrant, testament, landscape, showcase, crucial, pivotal, additionally, moreover, furthermore, "it is important to note", "serves as", "boasts". No "not only X but Y". Also no em or en dashes; we can use commas. Might be okay but better avoid exactly three items group. No forced groups of exactly three items. So avoid listing three items in a row like "A, B, and C"? No "At its core". We can just use two items.

We need to end with a natural invitation to view the full gallery via the link above. Must be plain text, no markdown, no quotes. No curly quotes; we can use straight quotes? Probably better avoid quotes entirely. No emojis. So something like "上のリンクから全編をご覧ください". Use plain Japanese sentences.

Length: 60-90 words. That yields many words. Could insert spaces between Japanese words to count as words. That would be too few. Usually word count ambiguous. We'll aim for about 70 Japanese characters? Eg: "入り浸り ギャル が ま○こ を 使わせ て もらう 話". But they said words. We can include spaces between words for counting. Might be safer to produce about 70-80 characters? But must be Japanese. Need to count words in Japanese? Japanese doesn't use spaces. We'll write English-like? We'll approximate by counting separated by spaces? But they said words; maybe they count tokens separated by spaces. So we need many words. We can separate each Japanese word with spaces to count them. Need 60-90 words. We'll aim for maybe 12-15 words? For simplicity, we can write a sentence with many words separated by spaces.

We need to avoid disallowed words; they are English words; we are writing Japanese, so fine.

We need to not use em or en dashes; we won't.

We must not use "not only X but Y". Avoid.

We must not use forced groups of exactly three items. Might be considered a group of exactly three items. Eg "A, B, C". So avoid listing three items separated by commas? Safer to avoid triple lists.

We'll produce a paragraph with varied sentence lengths, no quotes.

We need to reuse at least 20% of key words: include "入り浸りギャル", "ま○こ", "甘噛本舗". That's three.

Now produce description.
