Whats an FHSA and Why Should Gen Z Be Excited?

Looking to buy your first home? Take a look at the First Home Savings Account.

The First Home Savings account is now available. Announced by the federal government in 2022, the FHSA is an investment vehicle designed to assist first-time home buyers in saving for a down payment and other fees related to purchasing a home.

Why choose an FHSA?

- The contributions you make can reduce your taxable income
- Any income you earn from the FHSA is non-taxable while in the account
- When you withdraw funds from your FHSA to purchase your first home those funds are tax-free.
- If you have funds left in your FHSA after you purchase your first home they can be transferred to an RRSP/RRIF tax-free

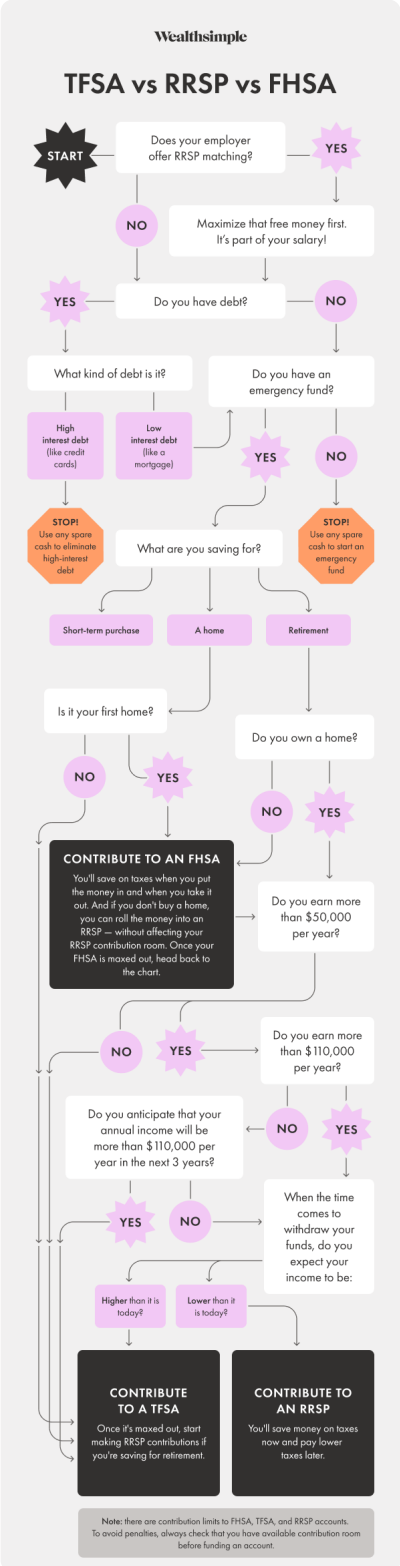

Who qualifies for the FHSA?

To be eligible you must:

- Be a Canadian resident
- Have a valid SIN (Social Insurance Number)
- Be 18 years or older, and
- Planning to buy your first home
